ANNOUNCEMENT

GambleAware commissions evaluation of harm-minimisation project

London, 20 September: GambleAware has commissioned Chrysalis Research to undertake an evaluation of a harm-minimisation project being undertaken by Betknowmore UK.

Betknowmore UK is delivering outreach support to Islington Licensed Betting Offices (LBO), helping customers who are identified as either at risk or problem gamblers and providing support and training for LBO staff members. They also deliver gambling awareness workshops to organisations, young people and frontline workers who may come across gambling issues with their clients.

Chrysalis Research is one of the ten diverse organisations that has been appointed to a three-year framework contract with GambleAware to supply evaluation services.

- GambleAware's programme of treatment, education, harm prevention and research is guided by the National Responsible Gambling Strategy, which is defined by the independent Responsible Gambling Strategy Board (RGSB) and endorsed by the Gambling Commission. The RGSB, the Gambling Commission and GambleAware work together under the terms of an agreement in place since 2012: <http://about.gambleaware.org/media/1216/statementofintent.pdf>. Research is conducted under the terms of a 'Research Commissioning and Governance Procedure' agreed in 2016 by the RGSB, the Gambling Commission and GambleAware: <http://about.gambleaware.org/media/1270/research-commissioning-and-governance-procedure-may-2016-final.pdf>.
- GambleAware requires a minimum of £10 million annually to deliver its current responsibilities, and looks to all those that profit from commercial gambling to support the charity. This donation-based system was proposed under the Gambling Act 2005 and is prescribed by the Gambling Commission in its Licence Conditions and Codes of Practice. The RGSB endorsed GambleAware's £10m funding goal in January 2017: <http://www.rgsb.org.uk/press-releases/responsible-gambling-strategy-board-publishes-assessment-of-the-quantum-of-funding-required-to-deliver-the-national-responsible-gambling-strategy.html>
- GambleAware funds the Gordon Moody Association, the NHS National Problem Gambling Clinic, GamCare and a network of charities across Great Britain to provide a full range of free treatment for problem gamblers and support for those affected by them. GambleAware also runs the website BeGambleAware.org which helps 2.7 million visitors a year, and supports the National Gambling Helpline – 0808 8020 133.
